DEDICATION

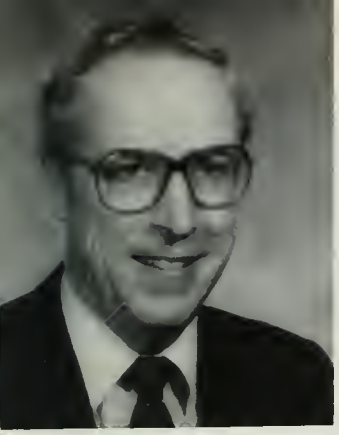
Miss Nancy Black

Rev. George Hay

The relationship of Miss Nancy Black to Ontario Bible College has been extensive and varied. It began with Nancy as a student, then as a secretary, part-time faculty member and since 1975, as a full-time faculty member. She has also given administrative leadership as Administrative Assistant to the Registrar and one year as Acting-Chairperson of the Christian Education Department. During her eleven years on the faculty, Miss Black has shown herself to be a very pleasant and very committed member of the Academic community. Her contribution includes faculty advising, serving on faculty committees, and editing the CREDEP news for the Christian Education Department. In her new ministry at First Alliance Church., Miss Black will serve as C.E. Director and in Women's Ministry. The same qualities which marked her OBC ministry will characterize her new ministry and will bring the continued blessing of God upon her labors.

Rev. George Hay joined the faculty of OBC in 1980. This move was a major transition from a pastoral ministry to an academic context. In the seven years of ministry at OBC, Rev. Hay has served as chairman of the pastoral department, Director of Field Education and Dean of Students. These varied roles have been faithfully filled by balancing academics and administration. Rev. Hay will be remembered as a man of tenacity, a man with a real sense of humour and a commitment to students. His new ministry places him on the pastoral staff at People's Church in Toronto, where he will continue to make a substantial contribution to the work of God's Kingdom.

From all the staff, students, and faculty at Ontario Bible College, Thank-you and may God richly bless you in the days to come.



The wife of one of the generals of Cyrus, the ruler of Persia, was charged with treachery against the king and condemned to die. When her husband realized what had taken place, he ran to the palace and threw himself on the floor before the king. "O king, take my life instead of hers. Let me die in her place," he pleaded. Cyrus, who by all historical accounts was a noble and extremely sensitive man, was touched by this offer. "Love like that must not be spoiled by death," he said, and gave the husband and wife back to each other.

As they walked away, the husband said, "Did you notice how kindly the king looked upon us when he gave you the free pardon?" The wife replied, "I had no eyes for the king. I saw only the man who was willing to die in my place."

This story from the pages of ancient history offers three models I wish to commend to every graduate of Ontario Bible College. The husband demonstrates the sacrifice of love. Love gives! "For God so loved the world that He gave . . ." That's what true love does. The measure of your love for your god, your brother, or your neighbour will always be the quality of your sacrifice! Be a Great Giver!

Cyrus was a protector and preserver of love. Such people are a rare species in our world and churches today. Endeavour "to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." (Ephesians 4:3) Be a Determined Preserver!

The wife exemplifies the response of love. No one will ever love you as the Saviour has loved you. He has loved you unto death. Eyes only for Him will shape your life. Others love you too. Don't just take. Be a Genuine Responder!

The badge of true discipleship is love (John 13:35). Wear the badge constantly and prominently. You will bless hundreds - and in the process be greatly blessed.

WELCOME

PRESIDENT'S AND VICE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As we look back over this past school year many different experiences come to mind – many of which have caused us to grow and develop, adding to our total development as people. We can remember things like the event filled Orientation Week, Spiritual Emphasis Week with Byron Spradlin, and the exciting and challenging "Faithful Ambassadors for Christ" conference. You also can not forget the battle against the winter as the final football game was played; or on a wetter note, the battle against the water table during the OBC floods. OBC also saw many new and exciting changes this year, such as the Discovery Groups, the Evangelism Committee, Quiet Time, Dr. Tiessen – just to name a few.

Amongst all these many happenings and changes, the Student Council has sought to emphasize that we are to set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith and in purity (1 Tim. 4:12). We encourage that in the many years of your life ahead, you continue to remember the truths of this verse and set an example in each of these areas.

We personally want to thank the members of the Student Council who have not only done a terrific job as individual committees, but who have also worked together as a team to make this a very successful year as a Student Council. And we furthermore want to thank you, the Student body, for allowing us the joy and privilege of serving you in this way.

In Christ,

Stephen Ford
Ruth Morton

VALEDICTORIAN

Proverbs 6:9 tells us that "in his heart a man plans his course, but the Lord directs his path." The day has finally come into sight! Tomorrow evening, we the graduating class of 1987 will receive the degrees or diplomas that we have worked for over all these years.

If we look back at the last few weeks at OBC we can recall some amazing pressure and we sometimes wondered if we would ever survive to see our own graduation. So much has happened in this last month of school that the mind needs to slow down to take it all in! For those graduates who finished in December, you can relate to those of us who finished on Tuesday. When exams were finished the main goal was to get some sleep, and lots of it.

There are 68 members in our class, and that means 68 styles of ministry. Though we are all distinct we have a common bond, we all desire to love and serve the living God. The struggles and victories have been different in each life, yet we all know that it is the same God who is at work within us.

What happens after tomorrow night? Is it true that we now enter the "real" world and face reality in everyday life at university or at work? I think we need to look at it another way, the correct way. OBC, through the various programs and the faithful servanthood of the faculty in teaching us, has equipped US to be the REAL people in an ever changing society.

How can we prepare to face the challenging times ahead? Three very important things come to mind: Prayer, personal holiness, and disciplined commitment. No matter whether you go into full time ministry or work in the secular world, we need to be in continual communication with God in order to remain in a healthy relationship with Him and also to protect us from all that the world will throw at us. Unless we bring everything to the Lord in prayer, we are not allowing Him complete control of our lives.

Commitment is a word that is abused in today's society. Some people confuse being busy with being committed. We can all relate to the fact that sometimes we wonder why we ever commit ourselves to everything people ask us to do. Why is it we can't say no to people? Why do we usually take on more than we can handle? It is crucial that we give ourselves to the point of service where it is most beneficial and meaningful to our ministry and relationships with our families, friends, and God. Being selective in what we commit ourselves to in the years to come will make all the difference not only in what we put into life, but also what we get out of life. We need to be sensitive in these days of busyness in order to choose those opportunities that would be most affirming of our gifts and time. We need to commit ourselves to doing the things we do because we feel God is leading us in that direction rather than for selfish reasons.

School is finished. Those haunting words "it will never be quite the same again" will ring loudly in your mind tonight and tomorrow night.

OBC has provided us with alot of meaningful friendships and for some, partners for life. Our new life after OBC allows us to once again take up the challenge of meeting new people and being involved in new things. In a sense we will be able to practise what has been preached and to see God working in different ways. To be on the cutting edge of life is where we see ourselves and our relationship with God as it.truly is.

A friend of mine shared the following verses with me, that mean even more to me now than they did when she told me about four months ago. Acts 17:24-28, "The God who made the world and everything in it is the Lord of Heaven and earth and does not live in temples built by hands. And he is not served by human hands, as if he needed anything, because he himself gives all men life and breath and everything else. From one man he made every nation of men, that they should inhabit the whole earth. And he determined the times set for them and the exact places where they should live. God did this so that men would seek him and perhaps reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each of us. For in him we live and move and have our being".

Graduates, one step of our lives is complete. The next has already begun to form. As God has taken us through these years, so too will He place you and I exactly where He wants us, and He will work through us to glorify Himself.

God requires a pure vessel. We must be willing to put aside our hopes of what we want to be and do and instead give God full reign in our lives - serving God with all our heart, mind, soul, and strength. Serving a holy God is a privilege we dare not take lightly. Beware of compromise and complacency creeping into your life. The world is full of traps that would have us falter in our ways. A holy graduation class - holiness is to be evident and ever growing in our lives. Wherever we go and whatever we do after tomorrow night, remember this one thing; it is God who carries us, who disciplines us, who uses us, and He will bless our lives. Philippians 4:8 states clearly what God desires our thoughts to be fixed on. "Whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable, if anything is excellent or praiseworthy think about such things". May we desire to be the holy and separate people of God. Let us be "called by Him" as our Grad hymn states. Tomorrow night marks the separation of lives and friendships. We will emerge from graduation ready to take the next step.

It has been challenging, it has been hard, it has been enriching, and it is now over. Over these years God has worked in our lives, each in a different way. Let us be assured that He will continue to work within us. Fellow graduates, be firm in your faith, always know why you believe in the living God, be ready to give an answer to those who oppose you, and REMAIN TRUE TO YOUR FIRST LOVE. It is an honour to be one among you as a graduate of the Class of 1987.

I Timothy 4:12 Do not let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers . . .

IN SPEECH

Proverbs 22:11 He who loves a pure heart and whose speech is gracious will have the King for his friend.

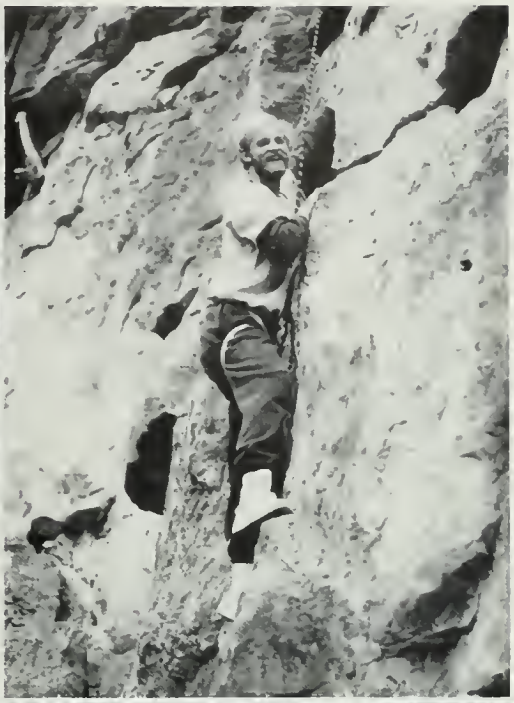
IN LIFE

James 3:13 Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show it by his good life, by deeds done in the humility that comes from wisdom.

IN LOVE

Romans 12:9, 10 Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. Be devoted to one another in brotherly love.

IN FAITH



Romans 1:17 For in the gospel a righteousness from God is revealed . . . just as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith".

IN PURITY

Psalm 51:10 Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from your presence.

SPECIAL CHAPELS

EDITORS MESSAGE

This years theme at OBC was to set an example . . . in speech, in life, in love in faith and in purity. We've had some great times and a great year at OBC and we hope to have captured at least some of those special moments in this years yearbook. Although the book only shows bits and pieces of what OBC is all about, each of you have your own special memories which will go with this book, making this year special to you in your own way. OBC has certainly been a place of sharing life, and love and faith and one of at least trying to set examples for others and we hope that this book will be a part of your sharing some of that with others.

A special thanks to all the people who helped out in big ways and small. From doing the cover, to helping sort pictures, to finding information, to taking pictures, or writing an encouraging note. You know who you are. We love you all! Thanks!

The sun, a ball of fire, casts colours across the sky

In the tossing waves below, I see the light of the moon and a thousand stars captured in the water.

For a moment, a brief moment, I too have a glimpse of Heaven.

And then I have to ask myself: I doubt?
I even dare to doubt?

Tina Liebgott

When I look into your eyes and see the joy and wonder

I wonder to myself "what does it take to have a child's faith?"

When I look into your eyes
and see the fear and pain

I wonder to myself "What does it take to have a child's faith?"

When I look into your eyes
and see the tears, but then the laughter.

I wonder to myself "what does it take to have a child's faith?"

When I look into your eyes
I begin to see what it takes to have a childs faith.

I could lift my hands

I could lift my head

I could lift my voice

But it is in the lifting of the heart

It is there that we find fulfillment!

If the heart is lifted, then,

the voice,

head,

and hands will fall in place.

So Lord, let me always lift my heart to You!

KA Colleen Nickerson

Fluffy clouds outside,
Angry clouds inside.

Softly raining outside,
Torrents falling inside.

Gentle breeze outside,
Whirlwinds raging inside.

Sun shining outside,
Heart breaking inside.

Yes. Weather can be felt.

Julie Sparkes

My God is so big, so strong and so mighty, there's nothing my God cannot do.

Here I am, lost in my own weakness.
I feel as if I'm all together . . .
And then I fall apart.

I don't know where I am or what's to be.
Building on the past doesn't work . . .
And I can't see the future.

What do you have for me Lord?
It seems that everything You give . . .
You take quickly away.

I want to live always for You to make You proud of me . . .
But I can't find You.

Please take away these clouds of "ME"
So that I can see You clearer . . .
And know that You are God.

Vicki Staines

Praising God
Those are the days I need.
In His boundless grace.
He'll be so real to touch,
So real to worship.
I thank you Jesus for those days
That you are here
With me.
Touching me and blessing me.
Filling me with His wisdom and love.
Yes, those are the days I long for.

OBC LIFE

GETTING ORIENTED!?

To a casual observer, all seemed quiet on the OBC front. However, on Tuesday, October 28th, the students were awaiting the arrival of "JONI AND FRIENDS" with anticipation. The welcome wagon was in readiness – even the elevator was clean and shiny (well almost!) It was the beginning of an action-packed, fun-filled week of events for Joni . . . The male choir on fourth floor were prepared for their temporary female residents. Who could forget one's imprisonment in the elevator while being serenaded with "We wish you a Merry Christmas" (at Hallowe'en!)? . . . Friday's chapel was a memorable occasion for Joni who was officially welcomed with "The Wave" by OBC/OTS students and presented with a one-of-a-kind OBC sweatshirt to add to her collection. Joni continued to win her way into our hearts with her warmth and honesty, with thought provoking music and humorous anecdotes about praying for Ken Tada's head in church . . . their first date . . . honeymoon "handicap awareness week" . . . and more . . . Joni's other half, Ken Tada, arrived in Toronto on October 31st to be kidnapped in style by four OBC hallowe'en creatures in a limousine. Ken was in town to appear with his wife in a public concert at the Metro Convention Centre on Friday, which also featured a testimony by our very own Phil Quinton . . . We will best remember Joni's servant heart – one whose life is abandoned to God, who is being made into a picture of Jesus, who experiences the need of being lifted above earthbound things on Spirit's wings, and who is trying to faithfully run the Christian race – on wheels!

SPIRITUALITY AT OBC

MISSIONS CONFERENCE 1987

One of the greatest highlights of every O.B.C. year is the annual Global Missions Conference. This year has been no exception. The interaction between the fifty missionaries and the students, faculty and staff, greatly enhanced the activities of the week. The speakers, Mr. Dick Dowsett and Dr. Arthur Yohner, challenged and encouraged us to be the "Faithful Ambassadors for Christ", our theme for the week, wherever the Lord leads us in global ministry, whether at home or overseas. "We are therefore Christ's Ambassadors, as though God were making His appeal through us." II Cor. 5:20. May we remember the impact which God has made in our individual lives as a result of this conference. SCGM

JOY TO THE WORLD

It was inevitable. As sure as a McCartney vs. Wheaton floor hockey final, was the Intramural Football Championship pitting last years champs, 3 South, against the traditionally strong out-of-dormers. Both teams were undefeated and had played to a 0-0 defensive showcase'' tie during the regular season. So, a low scoring game was expected, especially with the driving blizzard that seemed to get stronger as the game progressed. But to the surprise of everyone, the game was an offensive and genial display. And so it was that when the dust (snow?!) had cleared, the 3 South spirit warriors had turned away the ODIE'S big running attack enough to secure a 35-28 excitingly fought triumph and a now two-year stangle hold on this title.

QUADS

The atmosphere was tense. The air was filled with excitement, as the four Bible Colleges, Redeemer, Emmanuel, London Baptist, and O.B.C. battled it out for the 1987 Quads Championship Title. The competition was tough and the scores were close. Once again however, O.B.C. pulled through and reclaimed the title for another year. Three cheers for the 1987 Quads Champs!!!

A DAY IN THE LIFE . . .

6:30 am, and the alarm clocks begin to ring. Shortly after 7:00 the scramble for showers begins. Slowly students from the dorms come to life. Outside the familiar crunching of gravel can be heard as out of dormers make their way across the parking lot. And then the teachers arrive looking very stern at such an early hour. Meanwhile the shuttle bus deposits another sleepy load of students at the front doors. Slowly but surely everyone is ready for another . . . day in the life of OBC.

7:15 am - Destination: Finch Station.

7:45 am - "Sarah! my hairspray???!!"

8:00 am - "Wake up ???? Do you know what time it is?!"

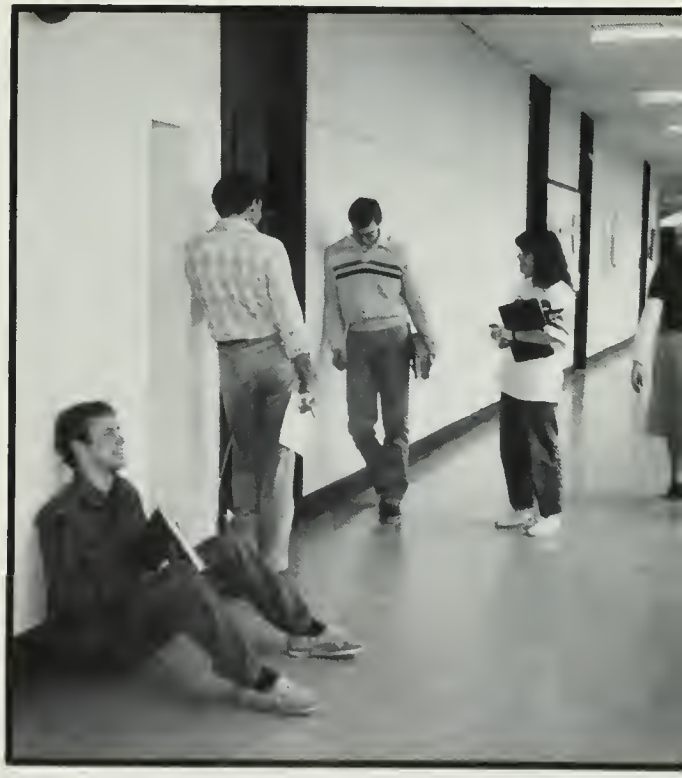
10:10 am - "Seriously!! Class doesn't start till 15 minutes after chapel! O.K. O.K. 10 after!"

11:00 am - "O.T. oh great . . . wonderful"



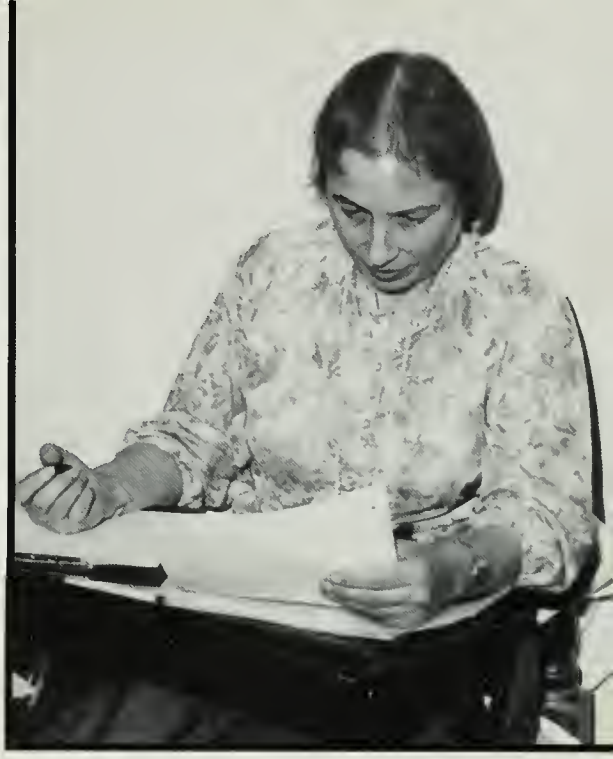
11:59 am - "You've got one minute, are you going to first half or not."

12:00 pm - "Sir, that lecture really blew me away!!"

1:00 pm - For some it's lunch time. Mmmm? Spaghetti?

2:00 pm - And for others it's time to read.

3:00 pm - And for others it's time for . . . well . . . other things!



Evening arrives at OBC! The activities are just too numerous to list. Dinner is one event that can't be missed. And who could ever forget the joy of gratis, formally known as community service. For some monkeying around takes precedence over all those books, papers and assignments that are due at midnight . . . TONIGHT!!! Whether it's an early bedtime or an infamous "all nighter" there is always plenty to do! All in a day in the life of OBC.
